

Programme overview

The programme puts business valuation in context of an M&A transaction.

Valuation and the M&A process

Teaching includes a mix of lectures, case studies and examples; it is problem based, making use of cases from current practice. Participants are challenged to contribute to and learn through focused classroom discussions with fellow programme participants and faculty.