

Europe's leading finance school located in Amsterdam

Duisenberg school of finance offers various programmes with a comprehensive and rigorous understanding of finance and law. Our programmes integrate theory and practice.

Through our emphasis on building 'thoughtful financial leadership', we develop well-rounded and responsible experts in finance.

Participants benefit from Duisenberg school of finance's synergistic network with leading organisations within the finance and law industry, as well as from many note worthy international academic alliances.

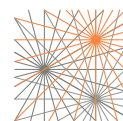

DSF highlights

- World-Class Faculty
- Network with Industry and Academia
- Duisenberg Leadership Programme
- Specialised Master's programmes
- Certificate Programmes
- Innovative Research Department

Duisenberg school of finance

Gustav Mahlerplein 117, 1082 MS, Amsterdam,
The Netherlands, Telephone +31 (0)20 525 8590
info@dsf.nl, www.dsf.nl

for leaders in finance

Duisenberg
school of finance

Part-time studies at Duisenberg school of finance

Duisenberg school of finance part-time Master's programmes are for ambitious professionals who want to get ahead, without putting their careers on hold. Gain rewarding experiences and the latest financial knowledge and skills necessary to further your career in finance.

Part-time programmes

- MSc in Risk Management
- MSc in Finance and Law
- LLM in Finance and Law

Immediate Benefits

- Stimulating breeding ground for critical, 'new' financial thinking and in-depth analysis
- Immediate practice and implementation of knowledge and insights in the workplace
- Thought leadership development
- Personal and professional development
- Extensive professional and alumni network

Programmes at a glance

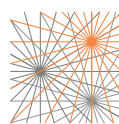

- Length: 24 Months
- Classes: 1 to 1,5 days per week
- Intake: September (1 intake per year)
- Fee: € 26.000

Admissions Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in finance, business, econometrics, law or related discipline
- A competitive GMAT/GRE score
- Fluent in English (speech and writing)
- Strong motivation, ambition and interpersonal skills

Contact us at info@dsf.nl for more detailed information on our part-time programmes and other courses for professionals.

Apply now via www.dsf.nl

Duisenberg
school of finance